Editor's Note

The hymnal is a closed book to the average minister, superintendent, chorister and layman. It ought to be a fascinating volume of history, biography, nature descriptions, ethics and religion. Its famous men and women, its outstanding dates, its literary and musical charm, and its virility to meet the present day needs, ought to stir the hymn-singing world to a new appreciation of this wonder book. To hasten this day, the Hymnal for American Youth features dates, authors, composers, tune names, and copious indexes; names of many renowned men and women are to be found at the top of each hymn page, while great events in church and world history are revived in such tune names as Nicaea, Armageddon, Arthur's Seat, and Crusaders Hymn.

In order to stimulate further interest in historic and biographical backgrounds and in the truest emotional interpretation in singing, several pamphlets are to follow this Hymnal, one on how to tell hymn stories to children, another on how to interpret and lead hymns for mass singing.

The Hymnal for American Youth, of strategic content for adolescent, college, and church life, is also a winsome volume for junior boys and girls in the Sunday School. Attention is called to the following special features:

1. The forward march of the music, uninterrupted by black bars or annoying rests.
2. Range of tunes best adapted to congregational singing.
3. Facile keys, both for singer and player, avoiding double sharps and flats and awkward accidentals.
4. Unison tunes of flowing lines and rich instrumental accompaniment.
5. All stanzas restored to position in the music, with words directly above or below the notes.
6. Objectionable phrases re-edited for most effective use with young people; stanzas omitted wherever possible without weakening the total appeal of the hymn.
7. Alternate tunes on opposite pages, so as to allow choice of a second tune within the range of the eye.
8. Complete data as to authors, composers, tune names, and metrical forms.
9. Unusual strength in the sections devoted to the Life and Ministry of Jesus, Purity and Self Control, Conflict and Heroism, Human Service and Brotherhood, Freedom and Justice, Patriotism and Democracy, Peace, World Brotherhood, and Missions.

10. Orders of worship on vital themes, with liturgic beauty, directness of appeal, and simplicity of execution; many of the services being in the same key throughout; Service Five in E flat, Fourteen in F, Sixteen in A flat, and Twenty in B flat.

With the help and inspiration of professorial colleagues, of class-room discussion, of conventional clinics, and of predecessors in hymn book construction, the Hymnal for American Youth has grown through the years to be the present book. It is therefore the composite of many minds and hearts, and represents co-operative editorship from ocean to ocean, and from Canada to Mexico.

In the final shaping up of the book Professor Richard G. Appel, Reverend Moreton W. Owen, and Doctor Charles L. Noyes have given invaluable aid.

For my wife, Lucia May Smith, whose musical supervision, proof reading, and hymn data collaboration have made this book possible, I reserve my last word of thanks and the affectionate dedication of this Hymnal.

H. AUGUSTINE SMITH,

3. With all the an - gel choirs, With all the saints on earth,

Your fes - tal ban - ner wave on high, — The cross of Christ your King,
Raise high your free, ex - ult - ing song, God's won - drous praise de - clare.
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss, True rap - ture, no - blest mirth.
Send forth the hymns our fa - thers loved, The psalms of an - cient days.
From youth to age, by night and day, In glad - ness and in woe.
As war - riors thro' the dark - ness toil Till dawns the gold - en day.

When Morning Gilds the Skies

(LAUDES DOMINI. 6, 6, 6, 6, 6, 6)

German, 19th Century

Translated by EDWARD CASWALL, 1853

JOSEPH BARNBY, 1868

1. When morn-ing gilds the skies, My heart a-wak-ing cries,
 2. When-e'er the sweet church bell Peals o-ver hill and dell
 3. The night be-comes as day, When from the heart we say,
 4. In heaven's e-ter-nal bliss The love-liest strain is this,
 5. Be this, while life is mine, My can-ti-cle di-vine,

May Je-sus Christ be praised! A-like at work and prayer,
 May Je-sus Christ be praised! O hark to what it sings,
 May Je-sus Christ be praised! The powers of dark-ness fear,
 May Je-sus Christ be praised! Let earth, and sea, and sky,
 May Je-sus Christ be praised! Be this th'e-ter-nal song

To Je-sus I re-pair; May Je-sus Christ be praised!
 As joy-ous-ly it rings, May Je-sus Christ be praised!
 When this sweet chant they hear, May Je-sus Christ be praised!
 From depth to height re-ply, May Je-sus Christ be praised!
 Through all the a-ges long, May Je-sus Christ be praised! A-MEN.

We Thank Thee, Lord, for This Fair Earth 11

(HOPE)

- 1 We thank thee, Lord, for this fair earth,
 The glittering sky, the silver sea;
 For all their beauty, all their worth,
 Their light and glory, come from thee.
- 2 Thine are the flowers that clothe the ground,
 The trees that wave their arms above,
 The hills that gird our dwellings round,
 As thou dost gird thine own with love.
- 3 Yet teach us still how far more fair,
 More glorious, Father, in thy sight,
 Is one pure deed, one holy prayer,
 One heart that owns thy Spirit's might.
- 4 So while we gaze with thoughtful eye
 On all the gifts thy love has given,
 Help us in thee to live and die,
 By thee to rise from earth to heaven.

 3. To-day on wea-ry na-tions The heav-en-ly man-na falls;

 We reach the rest re-main-ing To spir-its of the blest;

On thee, the high and low-ly, Bend-ing be-fore the throne,
 On thee, our Lord, vic-to-rious, The Spir-it sent from heaven;
 Where gos-pel light is glow-ing With pure and ra-diant beams,
 To Ho-ly Ghost be prais-es, To Fa-ther, and to Son;

Sing ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly, To the great Three in One.
 And thus on thee, most glo-rious, A tri-ple light was given.
 And liv-ing wa-ter flow-ing With soul-re-fresh-ing streams.
 The Church her voice up-rai-s-es To thee, blest Three in One. A-MEN.

Peacefully Round Us the Shadows Are Falling 24

(CURFEW)

- 1 Peacefully round us the shadows are falling,
 Glad be our praises and trustful our prayer:
 Hear us, O Lord, on thy providence calling,
 Lighten our darkness, and banish our care.
- 2 Hushed are the sheep-bells afar on the moorland,
 O'er the still meadows the night breezes sweep,
 Faint fall the footsteps in city and hamlet,
 Safely the children are folded in sleep.
- 3 Softly may weary ones rest from their duty,
 Bright be the dreams of the troubled and worn,
 While through the shade beam the stars in their beauty,
 Watching the world till the breaking of morn.
- 4 Lord of the night, let thine angels defend us;
 Sunshine and gloom are alike unto thee:
 Lord of the day, let thy Spirit attend us,
 Bless us and keep us, wherever we be.

Shepherd of Tender Youth

37

(ITALIAN HYMN)

(The earliest known hymn of the Christian Church)

1 Shepherd of tender youth,
 Guiding in love and truth
 Through devious ways;
 Christ, our triumphant King,
 We come thy name to sing,
 And here our children bring,
 To sound thy praise!

2 Thou art our Holy Lord,
 The all-subduing Word,
 Healer of strife:
 Thou didst thyself abase,

That from sin's deep disgrace
 Though mightest save our race,
 And give us life.

3 Ever be thou our Guide,
 Our Shepherd and our Pride,
 Our Staff and Song:
 Jesus, thou Christ of God,
 By thy enduring word,
 Lead us where thou hast trod,
 Make our faith strong.

CLEMENT OF ALEXANDRIA, about 120 A.D.

ROSSITER W. RAYMOND, 1840-1918

A Thousand Years Have Come

76

(CAROL)

- 1 A thousand years have come and gone,
 And near a thousand more,
 Since happier light from heaven shone
 Than ever shone before,
 And in the hearts of old and young
 A joy most joyful stirred,
 That sent such news from tongue to tongue
 As ears had never heard.
- 2 And we are glad, and we will sing,
 As in the days of yore;
 Come all, and hearts made ready bring,
 To welcome back once more
 The day when first on wintry earth
 A summer change began,
 And, dawning in a lowly birth,
 Uprose the Light of man.

Amid the Din of Earthly Strife

103

(BEAUFORT)

- 1 Amid the din of earthly strife,
 Amid the busy crowd,
 The whispers of eternal life
 Are lost in clamors loud;
 When lo! I find a healing balm,
 The world grows dim to me;
 My spirit rests in sudden calm
 With him of Galilee.
- 2 I linger near him in the throng,
 And listen to his voice;
 I feel my weary soul grow strong,
 My saddened heart rejoice.
 Amid the storms that darkly frown
 I hear his call to me,
 And lay my heavy burden down
 With him of Galilee.

When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

109

(HAMBURG. L.M.)

Georgian Chant

ISAAC WATTS, 1707

Arranged by LOWELL MASON, 1824

1. When I sur-vey the won-drous cross On which the Prince of glo-ry died,
 2. For-bid it, Lord, that I should boast, Save in the death of Christ, my God;
 3. See, from his head, his hands, his feet, Sor-row and love flow min-gled down;
 4. Were the whole realm of na-ture mine, That were a pres-ent far too small;

My rich-est gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride.
 All the vain things that charm me most, I sac-ri-fice them to his blood.
 Did e'er such love and sor-row meet, Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
 Love so a-maz-ing, so di-vine, Demands my soul, my life, my all. A-MEN.

With Sorrowing and Sighing

RICHARD CECIL POND, 1916

(STATHAM. 7, 6, 7, 6)

WILLIAM STATHAM, 1832-1898

1. With sor-row-ing and sigh-ing Do we ap-proach his grave;
 2. Our high hopes have de-part-ed, Our faith in him has fled;
 3. Whom shall we find to help us To roll the stone a-way,
 4. The stone is rolled a-way! The tomb is emp-ty quite!

With oint-ment and with spic-es Would we his bo-dy lave.
 Still, still we love the Mas-ter, Tho' num-bered with the dead.
 So that we may a-noint him A-gainst his bur-ial day.
 And see the grave-clothes ly-ing So si-lent and so white! A-MEN.

O Day of Light and Gladness

(LANCASHIRE)

- 1 O day of light and gladness,
 Of prophecy and song,
 What thoughts within us waken,
 What hallowed memories throng!
 The soul's horizon widens,
 Past, present, future blend;
 And rises on our vision
 The life that hath no end.
- 2 Earth feels the season's joyance;
 From mountain range to sea
 The tides of life are flowing
 Fresh, manifold and free.
 In valley and on upland,
 By forest pathways dim,
 All nature lifts in chorus
 The resurrection hymn.
- 3 O Lord of life eternal,
 To thee our hearts upraise
 The Easter song of gladness,
 The Passover of praise.
 Thine are the many mansions,
 The dead die not to thee,
 Who fillest from thy fulness
 Time and eternity.

Lift Up, Lift Up Your Voices Now

121

JOHN M. NEALE, 1854

(WALTHAM. L. M.)

J. BAPTISTE CALKIN, 1872

1. Lift up, lift up your voices now, The whole wide world rejoice now;
 2. In vain with stone the cave they barr'd; In vain the watch kept ward and guard;
 3. And all he did, and all he bare, He gives us as our own to share;
 4. O Vic-tor, aid us in the fight, And lead thro' death to realms of light;

The Lord hath triumphed gloriously, The Lord shall reign victoriously.
 Majestic from the spoiled tomb, In pomp of triumph Christ is come.
 And hope, and joy, and peace begin, For Christ has won, and man shall win.
 We safely pass where thou hast trod; In thee we die to rise to God. A-MEN.

O Master! When Thou Callest

135

(ST. HILDA)

1 O Master, when thou callest,
 No voice may say thee nay,
 For blest are they that follow
 Where thou dost lead the way;
 In freshest prime of morning,
 Or fullest glow of noon,
 The note of heavenly warning
 Can never come too soon.

2 O Master, when thou callest,
 No heart may dare refuse;
 'Tis honor, highest honor,
 When thou dost deign to use:
 Our brightest and our fairest,
 Our dearest — all are thine;
 'Thou who for each one carest,
 We hail thy love's design.

We Bear the Strain of Earthly Care

145

(SERENITY)

- 1 We bear the strain of earthly care,
 But bear it not alone;
 Beside us walks our brother Christ
 And makes our task his own.
- 2 Through din of market, whirl of wheels,
 And thrust of driving trade,
 We follow where the Master leads,
 Serene and unafraid.
- 3 The common hopes that make us men
 Were his in Galilee;
 The tasks he gives are those he gave Beside the restless sea.
- 4 Our brotherhood still rests in him,
 The Brother of us all,
 And o'er the centuries still we hear
 The Master's winsome call.

179 O Jesus, Prince of Life and Truth

(ALL SAINTS)

- 1 O Jesus, Prince of life and truth,
Beneath thy banner bright,
We dedicate our strength and youth
To battle for the call;
We give our lives with glad intent
To serve the world and thee,
To die, to suffer and be spent
To set our brothers free.
- 2 In serried ranks, with fearless tread,
O Captain of us all,
Thy glory on our banners shed,
We answer to thy call;
And where the fiercest battles press
Against the hosts of sin,
To rescue those in dire distress
We gladly enter in.
- 3 O Jesus, once a Nazareth boy,
And tempted like as we,
All inward foes help us destroy
And spotless all to be.
We trust thee for the grace to win
The high, victorious goal,
Where purity shall conquer sin
In Christlike self-control.

189 March on, March on, O Ye Soldiers True

ELLA S. ARMITAGE, 1886

(MARCH ON. Irregular)

CHARLES L. NAYLOR

1. March on, march on, O ye sol-diers true, In the cross of Christ con-fid-ing;
2. We march to fight with the pow'rs of night, That have held the world in sor-row;
3. Long is the fight, but the God of light, Tho' un-seen, is ev-er near us;

For the field is set, and the hosts are met, And the Lord his own is guid-ing;
 And the bro-ken heart shall for-get its smart, And shall hail a joy-ful mor-row.
 And the pray'rs that rise to the lis-tening skies Like a song of hope shall cheer us;

Thro' the earth's wide round let the ti-dings sound Of the Lord who came from heav-en,
 Long we fight with wrong, and our weapon strong Is the love which hate shall ban-ish;
 Till the sun-rise broad of the day of God, Shall de-clare the Vic-tor's glo-ry,

Of the might-y hope that with death can cope, And the love so free-ly giv-en.
 And the chains shall fall from each ransom'd thrall, As the thrones of ty-rants van-ish.
 And the world shall rest, in her Lord con-fess'd, And shall sing the fin-ish'd sto-ry.

198 God's Trumpet Wakes the Slumbering World

SAMUEL LONGFELLOW, 1864

(CORWIN. C. M. D.)

J. W. LERMAN, 1908

1. God's trum-pet wakes the slum-b'ring world; Now, each man to his post.
 2. He who, no an-ger on his tongue, Nor an-y i-dle boast,
 3. He who is read-y for the cross, The cause de-spised loves most;

The red-cross ban-ner is un-furled; Who joins the glo-rious host,
 Bears stead-fast wit-ness 'gainst the wrong,—He joins the sa-cred host,
 And shuns not pain or shame or loss,—He joins the mar-tyr host,

Who joins the glo-rious host? He who, in feal-ty to the truth,
 He joins the sa-cred host. He who with calm, un-daunt-ed will
 He joins the mar-tyr host. God's trum-pet wakes the slum-b'ring world;

And count-ing all the cost, Doth con-se-crate his gen-erous youth,— Ne'er counts the bat-tle lost, But though de-feat-ed, bat-tles still,—
 Now each man to his post. The red-cross ban-ner is un-furled;

He joins the no-ble host, He joins the no-ble host.
 He joins the faith-ful host, He joins the faith-ful host.
 We join the glo-rious host, We join the glo-rious host. A-MEN.

ROBERT WALMSLEY, 1831-1905
Refrain added

Arranged from ALFRED REDHEAD

1. We are come with joy and glad-ness, Once a-gain, our God and King,
 2. We are come, a band of sing-ers; There are wea-ry ones and sad,
 3. We are come, a band of work-ers; We would bring both heart and brain

To re-call thy lov-ing kind-ness, And our fes-tal hymns to sing.
 And we bring our cheer-ful mu-sic And our songs to make them glad.
 To the ser-vice of the Mas-ter, That his will in all may reign.

With a fresh and strong de-vo-tion, Eve-ry heart do thou in-spire,
 There is hope and joy e-ter-nal For the world's de-spond-ent throng;
 Then for-ev-er and for-ev-er Will the right have con-quer-ed wrong,

That each spark of love may bright-en In-to flame of ho-ly fire.
 We are come, a band of sing-ers, To pro-claim the news in song.

God Bless Our Native Land

(AMERICA. Number 246)

 Firm may she ever stand
 Through storm and night.
 When the wild tempests rave,
 Ruler of wind and wave,
 Do thou our country save,

 To God above the skies,
 On him we wait;
 Thou who art ever nigh,
 Guarding with watchful eye,
 To thee aloud we cry,
 God save the state.

 In whom alone is might,
 On thee we call;
 And may the nations see
 That men should brothers be,
 And form one family;
 God save us all. AMEN.

America, We Lift Our Battle Cry

241

American Consecration Hymn

(MATERNA)

- 1 America, America,
 We lift our battle cry!
 To live for thee is more than life,
 And more than death to die!
 Now by the blood our fathers gave,
 And by our God above,
 And by the Flag on every grave,
 We pledge to thee our love.
- 2 America, America,
 Bid all thy banners shine!
 O Mother of the mighty dead,
 Our very lives are thine.
- At Freedom's altar now we stand
 For God and Liberty!
 Lord God of Hosts, at thy command,
 We lift our souls to thee.
- 3 America, America,
 Speed on, by sea and air!
 We take the stripes of sacrifice,
 The stars of honor dare;
 And by the road our fathers trod
 We march to victory.
 To fight for Freedom and for God,
 Till all the world be free.

Eternal Peace, Whose Word of Old

296

(MELITA)

- 1 Eternal Peace, whose word of old
In the great basins poured the main,
And shut within their rocky fold
The unnumbered flocks of ocean's plain:
O hear us, while the billows roar,
For those who sail from shore to shore.
- 2 Great God, whose path upon the deep
Is still unknown, but who didst keep Thine ancient people, when the wind
And Egypt followed fast behind;
O hear us, when our prayer to thee
Ascends for those we love at sea.

The storm a calm, and brought him through
The surging ocean unafraid,
Unto the home he longed to view:
To all who sail the waters rude,
Give equal trust and fortitude.

Prayer

Unison Psalm (Psalm 8)

O Lord, our Lord,

How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers,

The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

What is man, that thou art mindful of him?

And the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him but little lower than the angels,

And hast crowned him with glory and honor.

Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands;

Thou hast put all things under his feet:

All sheep and oxen,

Yea, and the beasts of the field;

The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea,

And whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O Lord, our Lord,

How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

Unison Psalm or Memory Selection (Psalm 23)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
 He leadeth me beside the still waters; he restoreth my soul:
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil, for thou art with me;
 Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
 Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

Nature Descriptions in Hymns (Seated)

(The leader may read these lines, requesting the assembly to name the hymns from which these descriptions are taken.)

I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills.

Purple mountain majesties

Fair are the meadows,
Fairer still the woodlands,
Robed in the blooming garb of spring.

Wait and worship while the night
Sets her evening lamps alight
Through all the sky.

O'er earth's green fields
And ocean's wave beat shore.

Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand.

While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high.

Shadows of the evening
Steal across the sky.

Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by.

LEADER: Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labor.

For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a three-fold cord is not quickly broken.

Unison Reading

Entreat me not to leave thee,
And to return from following after thee:
For whither thou goest, I will go;
And where thou lodgest, I will lodge:
Thy people shall be my people,

Where thou diest I will die,
And there will I be buried:
The Lord do so to me, and more also,
If aught but death part thee and me.

III. MENTAL (Seated)

LEADER: Happy is the man who findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.

ASSEMBLY: For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

LEADER: She is more precious than rubies: and none of the things thou canst desire are to be compared with her.

ASSEMBLY: Length of days is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor.

LEADER: Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

ASSEMBLY: She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is everyone that retaineth her.

IV. RELIGIOUS

ASSEMBLY: The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Prayer (All unite reverently)

Give me clean hands, clean words, and clean thoughts; help me to stand for the hard right against the easy wrong; save me from habits that harm; teach me to work as hard and play as fair in thy sight alone as if all the world saw; forgive me when I am unkind; and help me to forgive those who are unkind to me; keep me ready to help others at some cost to myself; send me chances to do a little good every day, and to grow more like Christ. Amen.

William DeWitt Hyde

ASSEMBLY: For their sakes I sanctify myself.

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God,
To present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable
To God, which is your SPIRITUAL SERVICE.

Hymn © Master Workman (Third stanza)

O thou who dost the vision send
And gives to each his task,
And with the task sufficient strength,
Show us thy will, we ask;
Give us a conscience bold and good,
Give us a purpose true,
That it may be our highest joy,
Our Father's work to do. Amen.

X. The Heroic Life

Carry On, My Soul, Carry On!

Hymn Prelude No. 202 Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus (Followed by the singing of first stanza only. Standing)

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From victory unto victory
His army shall he lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed. Refrain.

LEADER: Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

ASSEMBLY: For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

LEADER: Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart.

ASSEMBLY: They that wait on the Lord, shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint.

Hymn (Second stanza)

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this his glorious day:
Ye that are men, now serve him
Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose. Refrain

The Right Kind of American Boy (Leader)

What we have a right to expect from the American boy, is that he shall turn out to be a good American man.

Now, the chances are strong that he won't be much of a man unless he is a good deal of a boy.

He must not be a coward or a weakling, a bully, a shirk, or a prig.

He must work hard and play hard.

He must be clean-minded and clean-lived and able to hold his own under all circumstances and against all comers.

It is only on these conditions that he will grow to be the kind of man of whom America can really be proud.

In life, as in a foot ball game, the principle to follow is: Hit the line hard; don't foul and don't shirk, but hit the line hard. Theodore Roosevelt

Hymn No. 192 How Firm a Foundation ((Roosevelt's Hymn)

How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord!
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word!
What more can he say, than to you he hath said, —
To you, who for refuge to Jesus have fled?

LEADER:

Hardships will be your lot, but trust in God, he will give you comfort. Temptation will befall you, but the teachings of our Saviour will give you strength. Let your valor as a soldier and your conduct as a man be an inspiration to your comrades and an honor to your country.

General Pershing

Prayer (All unite reverently. Remain standing)

Heavenly Father, thou knowest I desire to do my whole duty now and always. Give me an open mind to hear thy call and a willing heart to respond. May I be able through thee both to do and to dare. Keep me from faltering or turning aside from any task thou hast given me. May I be strong, having on the whole armor of God, and on every battlefield may I acquit myself like a true soldier of the Cross. Amen. Judson Swift

Hymn (Second stanza of preceding hymn)

Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dismayed,
For I am thy God, I will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my gracious, omnipotent hand. Amen.

Toiling Upward!

LEADER: No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

ASSEMBLY: The heights by great men reached and kept
Were not attained by sudden flight,
But they, while their companions slept,
Were toiling upward in the night.

HymnPress On, Press On, Ye Sons of Light

(SONS OF LIGHT. L.M.)

WILLIAM GASKELL, 1805-1884

FRANK LYNES, 1858-1913

UNISON

1. Press on, press on, ye sons of light, Un-tir-ing in your ho-ly fight; Still
2. Press on, press on, thro' toil and woe Calm-ly re-solved to tri-umph go; And
3. Press on, press on, still look in faith To him who vanquish'd sin and death; And, tread-ing each temp-ta-tion down And bat-tling for a bright-er crown.

make each dark and threatening ill Yield but a high-er glo-ry still.
till you hear his high 'Well done,' True to the last, press on, press on. A-MEN.

Prepared for the Fight!

LEADER: Without labor there is no arriving at rest, nor without fighting can the victory be reached.

ASSEMBLY: If thou art unwilling to suffer, thou refusest to be crowned,
But if thou desire to be crowned, fight manfully, endure patiently.

LEADER: Without a combat thou canst not attain unto the crown of patience.

ASSEMBLY: Be thou therefore always prepared for the fight,
If thou wilt have the victory. Thomas a Kempis

On! Sail On!

LEADER: They sailed! They sailed! Then spake the mate:
This mad sea shows his teeth to-night.
He lifts his lip, he lies in wait,
With lifted teeth, as if to bite.
Brave Admiral, say but one good word:
What shall we do when hope is gone?
The words leaped like a leaping sword:
'Sail on! sail on! sail on! and on!'

* * * *

ASSEMBLY: And then a speck!
A light! a light! a light! a light!
It grew, a starlit flag unfurled!
It grew to be Time's burst of dawn!
He gained a world; he gave that world
Its grandest lesson: 'On! sail on!' Joaquin Miller

Play Up! Play the Game!

LEADER: The sand of the desert is sodden red —
Red with the wreck of a square that broke —
The Gatling's jammed and the Colonel dead,
And the regiment blind with dust and smoke.
The river of death has brimmed his banks,
And England's far, and Honor a name,
But the voice of a schoolboy rallies the ranks:
'Play up! Play up! and play the game.' Henry Newbold

Carry On! My Soul! Carry On!

ASSEMBLY: Carry on! Carry on!
Fight the good fight and true;
Believe in your mission, greet life with a cheer,
There's big work to do, and that's why you are here.
Carry on! Carry on!
Let the world be the better for you;
And at last when you die, let this be your cry:
Carry on, my soul! Carry on! Robert W. Service

We Would See Jesus

LEADER: John was standing, and two of his disciples.
And he looked upon Jesus as he walked, and saith,
Behold, the Lamb of God!

ASSEMBLY: And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

LEADER: And Jesus turned, and beheld them following, and saith unto them,
What seek ye?

ASSEMBLY: And they said unto him, Teacher, where abidest thou?

LEADER: He saith unto them, Come, and ye shall see.

ASSEMBLY: Philip findeth Nathaniel, and saith unto him,
We have found him, of whom Moses in the law and the prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

LEADER: And Nathaniel said unto him,
Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?

ASSEMBLY: Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

Prayer (All uniting)

Lord Jesus, by whose voice the fishermen were called to a better fishing, constrain us, we pray thee, by that same loving call, to follow thee to the saving of others. Thou hast indeed been calling us this great while, as we listened indifferently, and turned to our small tasks once more. But now we are longing for the same spirit that drew the fishermen straightway to thy side for service. Grant that we may be swift to answer thee, and to take on the true spirit of thy ministry. Amen. Philip E. Howard

*Commit Thy Way Unto HimResponsive Reading (Matthew vi: 25-33)

LEADER: Jesus said: therefore I say unto you, be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on.

ASSEMBLY: Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment?

LEADER: Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they?

ASSEMBLY: And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life?

LEADER: And why are ye anxious concerning raiment?

Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

ASSEMBLY: Yet I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

LEADER: But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

ASSEMBLY: Be not therefore anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

LEADER: For after all these things do the Gentiles seek;

For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

ASSEMBLY: But seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness;
And all these things shall be added unto you.

The Vision of Isaiah (Standing)

LEADER: I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple! Above him stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said:

Sanctus (All sing)

Theme from 'The Holy City'

ALFRED R. GAUL, 1837-1913

Ho ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Lord of Hosts: Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly is the Lord of Hosts.

LEADER: And the foundations of the thresholds were moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Then said I, Woe is me! Because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of Hosts. Then flew one of the seraphim unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar; and he touched my mouth with it, and said: Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thy iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged!

Sanctus (All sing)

Holy, holy, holy, Lord of Hosts
 Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts.

LEADER: And I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: Whom shall I send and who will go for us?

ASSEMBLY: Then said I, here am I; send me.

And I?

Is there some desert or some pathless sea
 Where thou, good God of angels, wilt send me?
 Some oak for me to rend; some sod,
 Some rock for me to break;
 Some handful of his corn to take
 And scatter far afield,
 Till it, in turn, shall yield
 Its hundred fold
 Of grains of gold
 To feed the waiting children of my God?
 Show me the desert, Father, or the sea.
 Is it thine enterprise? Great God, send me.

Edward Everett Hale

Prayer (All uniting)

O thou Christ of Galilee, who didst go into the homes and the hearts of many folk and kindle there a light which has burned through all the centuries, make me a humble sharer of thy glory and goodness, that so I may find a purpose and meaning in my life. Teach me to speak and act so that I may cheer and help men. Grant me love for all, that I may everywhere see thy children and heed their cries! Amen. Floyd Tompkins

XIII. Mother's Day

(Mother's Day is observed the second Sunday in May)

(This service also commemorates Father's Day and the Home)

Instrumental Prelude

The White Carnation

It is suggested that a white carnation be worn by everyone. It is the memory flower, symbolic of motherhood; its whiteness stands for purity, its form for beauty, its fragrance for love, its universality for charity, its hardihood for fidelity.

LEADER:

So here's to the white carnation,
Wear it on Mother's Day;
Flower that blooms for mother,
Winsome, gallant, and gay.
Flower of perfect sweetness,
Flower for hut and hall,
Here's to the white carnation,
And to mother — our best of all.

Margaret E. Sangster

Hymn No. 38 For the Beauty of the Earth (Standing)

For the beauty of the earth,
For the glory of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies,
Lord of all, to thee we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

(or)

Hymn No. 293 O Happy Home

O happy home, where thou art loved the dearest,
Thou loving friend and Saviour of our race,
And where among the guests there never cometh
One who can hold such high and honored place.

O happy home, where each one serves thee, lowly,
Whatever his appointed work may be,
Till every common task seems great and holy.
When it is done, O Lord, as unto thee.

Hymn No. 41 The Beautiful Bright Sunshine

The beautiful affections
That gather round our way,
The joys that rise from household ties,
And deepen day by day;
The tender love that guards us
Whenever danger lowers,
O God! how fair thy loving care
Has made this earth of ours.

(These hymn stanzas may profitably be read after the hymn singing.)

The Lord's Prayer (All uniting)

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 Hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come,
 Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread,
 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
 And lead us not into temptation;
 But deliver us from evil:
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Hymn Response (Tune 'Dix,' No. 38)

For the joy of human love,
 Brother, sister, parent, child,
 Friends on earth, and friends above,
 For all gentle thoughts and mild,
 Lord of all, to thee we raise
 This our hymn of grateful praise. Amen.

The Messages of Five Governors to Their States on Mother's Day (Unison)

I hope that every man and woman, boy and girl, in our state may value at its own supreme worth the counsel, the self-sacrifice, and the unfailing love which only a devoted mother can give.

Show reverence and respect for the best friend that God ever gave us — Mother.

No state is greater than its Mothers.

The very word 'Mother' is a synonym for reverence. In all nature there is nothing so tender and loving and joyous as the relationship between mother and child.

I respectfully request our citizens generally throughout the state to observe the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day. If the day can be spent, at least in part, in her presence, make it one of great comfort to her by such ministrations as the heart of a true man will dictate. If she is living elsewhere, write her a letter full of cheer and confession of love. If she is held in the great beyond, do some deed of beneficence in her name that will cheer the life of another.

Responsive Reading

ASSEMBLY: Honor thy father and thy mother that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

LEADER: My son, hear the instruction of thy father and forsake not the teaching of thy mother.

I thank God, having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice.

Hear the words of King Lemuel concerning a woman of the Bible:

ASSEMBLY: Strength and dignity are her clothing;
 She stretcheth forth her hand to the poor;
 She openeth her mouth with wisdom;
 And the law of kindness is on her tongue.
 Her children rise up and call her blessed;
 Her husband also, and he praiseth her, saying;
 'Many daughters have done worthily,
 But thou excellest them all.'

(Seated)

Prayer (Leader)

Lord Jesus, thou hast known
A mother's love and tender care,
And thou wilt hear while for my own mother most dear
I make this Sabbath prayer.
Protect her life, I pray,
Who gave the gift of life to me;
And may she know, from day to day, the deepening glow
Of joy that comes from thee.
I cannot pay my debt
For all the love that she has given;
But thou, love's Lord, wilt not forget her due reward, —
Bless her in earth and heaven. Amen. Henry Van Dyke

The Messages of Five Great Lovers of Mothers (Leader)

The love of a mother is never exhausted,
It never changes, it never tires.
It endures through all; in good repute, in bad repute, in the face of the world's condemnation,
A mother's love still lives on. Washington Irving

All mothers are rich when they love their children.
There are no poor mothers, no ugly ones, no old ones.
Their love is always the most beautiful of the Joys.
And when they seem most sad, it needs but a kiss which they receive or give to turn all their tears into stars in the depths of their eyes. Maurice Maeterlinck

The happiest part of my happy life has been my mother, and with God's help she will be more to me than ever. Phillips Brooks

Even He that died for us upon the Cross, in the last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of his mother, as if to teach us that this holy love should be our last worldly thought. Henry W. Longfellow

All that I am or hope to be, I owe to my angel mother. Abraham Lincoln

Faith of Our Fathers (Music 'St. Catherine,' No. 269)

Faith of our fathers, living still
In spite of dungeon, fire and sword,
O how our hearts beat high with joy
Whene'er we hear that glorious word.
Faith of our fathers, holy faith,
We will be true to thee till death. Amen.

God bless our native land;
Firm may she ever stand
Through storm and night:
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of wind and wave,
Thou who art strong to save,
Be thou her might!

They found no city to dwell in.
Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

For his wonderful works to the children of men. (Seated)

THE FIRST THANKSGIVING CELEBRATION (Unison)

(Plymouth, Dec. 11, 1621)

Our corn did prove well; and, God be praised, we had a good increase of Indian corn. Our harvest being gotten in, our Governor sent four men on fowling, that so we might, after a special manner, rejoice together after we had gathered the fruit of our labors. Many of the Indians came amongst us, and among the rest their greatest king, Massasoit, with some ninety men whom for three days we entertained or feasted. Edward Winslow

Praise to God and Thanks We Bring

(ST. GEORGE'S, WINDSOR. 7, 7, 7, 7, D.)

WILLIAM C. GANNETT, 1882

GEORGE J. ELVEY, 1859

1. Praise to God and thanks we bring,—Hearts, bow down, and voices, sing!
 2. Praise him for his summer rain, Feeding day and night the grain;
 3. Praise him now for snow-y rest, Falling soft on nature's breast;

Prais-es to the Glo-rious One, All his year of won-der done!
 Praise him for his ti-ny seed, Hold-ing all his world shall need;
 Praise for hap-py dreams of birth, Brood-ing in the qui-et earth:

Praise him for his bud-ding green, A-pril's res-ur-rec-tion-scene;
 Praise him for his gar-den root, Mead-ow grass and or-chard fruit;
 For his year of won-der done, Praise to the All-glo-rious One!

Praise him for his shin-ing hours, Star-ring all the land with flowers!
 Praise for hills and val-leys broad,—Each the ta-ble of the Lord!
 Hearts, bow down, and voices, sing Praise, and love, and thanksgiv-ing! A-MEN.

Thanksgiving for Spiritual Blessings

ASSEMBLY: It is written: Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

LEADER: From oldest times, when shepherds dwelt
In tents of hair outspread,
This art was ordered with the law
That man should live by bread.
By bread, but 'not by bread alone,'
The spirit hath its need,
And on the ministry of truth
Its growing strength must feed. Julia Ward Howe

ASSEMBLY: Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us.
That we should be called the Sons of God.

LEADER: Bless the Lord, O my soul;
And all that is within me, bless his holy name.

ASSEMBLY: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits;
Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies.

LEADER: Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

Prayer (All unite reverently)

Father of mankind, who givest to thy creatures all things richly to enjoy! What can we render thee for all the abounding blessings that crown our lives! What canst thou do but give, what can we do but receive, since all we can offer is already thine own. Thou hast given the earth to the children of men. We give thanks and praise for the coming and going of day and night, for the march of the seasons, for the ever repeated miracle of growth by which all creatures are fed. We give thanks for the countless common benefits and comforts of every day and night: for the flowers of human kindness that spring along the path; for the law of commandments which teaches that we are thy servants; for the gospel of love which assures us that we are thy children. Amen.

Hymn Praise to God and Thanks We Bring (Third Stanza)

Thanksgiving for Our Country and What She Is to Be

LEADER:
New occasions teach new duties: time makes ancient good uncouth;
They must upward still, and onward, who would keep abreast of Truth;
Lo, before us gleam her camp-fires; we ourselves must Pilgrims be,
Launch our Mayflower, and steer boldly through the desperate winter sea,
Nor attempt the Future's portal with the Past's blood-rusted key. James Russell Lowell

Hymn Men Whose Boast It Is (Tune 'St. George's, Windsor.' See p. 45)

Men whose boast it is that ye	Is true freedom but to break
Come of fathers brave and free,	Fetters for our own dear sake,
If there breathe on earth a slave,	And with leathern hearts forget
Are ye truly free and brave?	That we owe mankind a debt?
If ye do not feel the chain	No! true freedom is to share
When it works a brother's pain,	All the chains our brothers wear,
Are ye not base slaves indeed,	And, with heart and hand, to be
Slaves unworthy to be freed?	Earnest to make others free. Amen.

James Russell Lowell, 1843

XV. Ring in the Christ

Christmas

Instrumental Prelude—Hymn No. 127 (From the 'Messiah')

Responsive Reading (Standing)

LEADER: How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings; that saith unto Zion, thy God reigneth.

ASSEMBLY: The voice of thy watchmen! they lift up the voice! together do they sing!

LEADER: Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem; for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem!

Hymn No. 231 (Tune 'Watchman' or 'St. George's, Windsor')

Watchman, tell us of the night,
What its signs of promise are.
Traveler, o'er yon mountain's height
See that glory-beaming star.
Watchman, does its beauteous ray
Aught of joy or hope foretell?
Traveler, yes; it brings the day,
Promised day of Israel.

LEADER: O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion,
Get thee up into a high mountain!

ASSEMBLY: O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem,
Lift up thy voice with strength!

LEADER: Lift it up, be not afraid,
Say to the cities of Judah,
Behold your God!

ASSEMBLY: Arise, shine; for thy light is come;
And the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee!

LEADER: The people that walked in darkness have Seen a great light.

ASSEMBLY: They that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death,
On them hath the light shined.

Hymn

Watchman, tell us of the night
For the morning seems to dawn.
Traveler, darkness takes its flight:
Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
Watchman, let thy wanderings cease;
Hie thee to thy quiet home.
Traveler, lo, the Prince of Peace,
Lo, the Son of God is come. Amen.

ASSEMBLY: For unto us a child is born,
 Unto us a Son is given;
 And the government shall be upon his shoulders:
 And his name shall be called,
 Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God,
 Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Hymn No. 223 (Tune 'Waltham')

Ring out, old shapes of foul disease;
 Ring out the narrowing lust of gold;
 Ring out the thousand wars of old,
 Ring in the thousand years of peace.

Ring in the valiant man and free,
 The larger heart, the kindlier hand;
 Ring out the darkness of the land,
 Ring in the Christ that is to be. Amen.

THREE NATIVITY PICTURES IN SONG AND VERSE

The Kings and the Star (Leader)

The Kings of the East are riding
 To-night to Bethlehem.
 The sunset glows dividing,
 The Kings of the East are riding;
 A star their journey guiding,
 Beaming with gold and gem.
 The Kings of the East are riding
 To-night to Bethlehem. Katharine Lee Bates

Refrain (All sing)

O star of won-der, star of night, Star with roy-al beau-ty bright,

West-ward lead-ing, still pro-ceed-ing, Guide us to thy per-fect light. A-MEN.

RING IN THE CHRIST

The Town and the Star (Leader)

O little town, O little town,
Upon the hills so far,
We see you, like a thing sublime,
Across the great gray wastes of time,
And men go up and men go down,
But follow still the star. Clinton Scollard

(All sing)

O star of wonder, star of night,

The Manger and the Star (Leader)

We would see Jesus, lo! his star is shining
Above the stable while the angels sing;
There in a manger on the hay reclining,
Haste, let us lay our gifts before the King. J. Edgar Park

(All sing)

O star of wonder, star of night,

The Five Pointed Star of Love and Service (Unison)

Love to God

O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord.

Love to Man

Whoso bears his brother's burden,
Whoso shares another's woe,
Brings his frankincense to Jesus
With the men of long ago.

Thoughtfulness

For somehow, not only for Christmas,
But all the long year through,
The joy that you give to others,
Is the joy that comes back to you.

Self-Sacrifice

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in his bosom that transfigures you and me;
As he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free,
While God is marching on.

Joy

There's a tumult of joy
O'er the wonderful birth,
For the Virgin's sweet boy
Is the Lord of the earth.

The World and the Star (Unison)

Christians, lo, the star appeareth
Leading still the ancient way;
Christians, onward with your treasure;
It is still Messiah's day.

Lift Up Your Heads (Psalm xxiv)

ASSEMBLY: Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
And be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors:
And the King of glory will come in.
Who is the King of glory?
The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.
Lift up your heads, O ye gates;

Who is this King of Glory?
The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Behold the King of glory waits;
The King of kings is drawing near;
The Saviour of the world is here.

Where Christ the Ruler is confest!
O happy hearts and happy homes
To whom this King of triumph comes!
- 3 Fling wide the portals of your heart!
Make it a temple, set apart
From earthly use for heaven's employ,
Adorned with prayer and love and joy.
- 4 Redeemer, come! I open wide
My heart to thee: here, Lord, abide!
Let me thy inner presence feel:
Thy grace and love in me reveal. Amen.

ASSEMBLY: All high and holy traditions of the past.

LEADER: Remembered be our Fathers, who founded the nation in integrity and piety,

ASSEMBLY: And died in faith, not having received the promises, but seeing them afar off.

ASSEMBLY: Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness,
Obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,
Quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword,
From weakness were made strong, waxed mighty in war,
Turned to flight armies of aliens.
Seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

Choral Response

Where loyal hearts and true
Stand ever in the light,
All rapture through and through,
In God's most holy sight. Amen.

ASSEMBLY: We need not go to Mecca or to Palestine to find the Holy Land.

The soul of man can transfigure earth and make it holy ground.
Sacred are the Mount of Olives and the Garden of Gethsemane;

Sacred the field of Thermopylae and the Town Common at Lexington;

Sacred are Plymouth Rock and Bunker Hill.

All are sacred because they bear the stamp of man's immortal soul. James Freeman Clark

II. MAKING DEATH SIGNIFICANT

Hymn No. 22 Abide with Me

I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if thou abide with me.
Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes,
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me. Amen. (Seated)

LEADER:

'Why fear death? It is the most beautiful adventure that life gives us.'

For all the boundless universe
Is life — there are no dead. Bulwer Lytton

We make too much of the circumstances men call death.
All life is one. All service one, be it here or there. Alice Freeman Palmer

The whole race reaches new heights in the breast of some simple hearted soldier, who so loves life that he has much to give, but so loves his country and his cause that he freely gives it all.

Ralph Barton Perry

To die for truth is not to die for one's country, but to die for the world. Jean Paul Richter

That no one who has died for a great cause is ever wasted, that the only right expression of grief is a fresh self-dedication to the cause the loved one loved, is an attitude toward loss that may well pass from the army of warriors to that greater army of civilians. Winifred Kirkland

Hymn No. 29S For All the Saints (Optional)

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
Thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia.

O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win with them the victor's crown of gold.

Alleluia. Amen.

III. THE CLOUD OF WITNESSES

ASSEMBLY: Theirs not to make reply,
Theirs not to reason why,
Theirs but to do and die. Tennyson

LEADER: That other generations might possess —
From shame and menace free in years to come —
A richer heritage of happiness,
He marched to that heroic martyrdom. Alan Seeger

ASSEMBLY: One by one Death challenged them. One by one they smiled in his grim visage, and refused to be dismayed. They had been lost, but they had found the path that led them home; and when at last they laid their lives at the feet of the Good Shepherd, what could they do but smile? Donald Hankey

LEADER: Lord, thou didst suffer more for me
Than all the hosts of land and sea.
So let me render back again
This millionth of thy gift. Joyce Kilmer

ASSEMBLY: Patriotism is not enough; I must have no hatred or bitterness toward any one. Edith Cavell (just before her execution)

ALL: TO YOU FROM FALLING HANDS WE THROW THE TORCH — BE YOURS TO HOLD IT HIGH;
IF YE BREAK FAITH WITH US WHO DIE,
WE SHALL NOT SLEEP, THOUGH POPPIES GROW, IN FLANDERS FIELDS.
John McCrae

IV. BLESSED ARE THEY THAT MOURN

Hymn No. 297 Hark, Hark, My Soul

Hark, hark, my soul! angelic songs are swelling
O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore:
How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling
Of that new life when sin shall be no more!
Angels of Jesus, angels of light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night! Amen.

ASSEMBLY: I am the resurrection and the life;
He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.
Whosoever believeth in me shall never die.

LEADER: God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes;
There shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying,
Neither shall there be any more pain.

ASSEMBLY: Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted.

LEADER: Be worthy of your noble dead,
So shall your hearts be comforted.
He is not lost who goes before,
But, standing in the Open Door,
He waits you there with outstretched hands,
Love's dearest, best ambassador.

V. HOLD HIGH THE TORCH

ASSEMBLY: Because you live, though out of sight and reach,
I will, so help me God, live bravely, too,
Taking the road with laughter and gay speech,
Alert, intent to give life all its due. Winifred Letts

Lincoln's Speech at Gettysburg

LEADER: Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

ASSEMBLY: Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure.

LEADER: We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live.

ASSEMBLY: It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground.

LEADER: The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract.

ASSEMBLY: The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here.

LEADER: It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced.

ASSEMBLY: It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us: that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion:

That we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Hymn No. 239 O Beautiful for Spacious Skies

America! America!
God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood,
From sea to shining sea!

Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness!
America! America!
God mend thine every flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law! Amen.

LEADER: And all these blessings shall overtake thee.

Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.

Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body and the fruit of thy ground.

Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

The Lord shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face.

ASSEMBLY: Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof.

Loose the bands of wickedness and undo the heavy burdens.

And thy righteousness shall go before thee:

LEADER: ATHENIAN OATH (Translated from the Greek)

We will never bring disgrace to this, our nation, by any act of dishonesty or cowardice, nor ever desert our suffering comrades in the ranks; we will fight for the ideals of the nation: both alone and with others: we will revere and respect our nation's laws, and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in those above us who are prone to annul and set them at naught; we will strive unceasingly to quicken the public's sense of civic duty, thus in all these ways, we will transmit this nation not only not less but greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

ASSEMBLY: FROM CONCORD BRIDGE TO THE MEUSE

The road from Concord Bridge to the heights above the Meuse is long, but it runs straight, and along it men are still led by the same love of liberty and service of democracy which was revealed in our first battle morning nearly a century and a half ago. Frank H. Simonds

The Flag and What it Stands For Freedom

LEADER: My name is Liberty!

From out a mighty land

I face the ancient sea,

I lift to God my hand:

By day in heaven's light

A pillar of fire by night

At ocean's gate I stand

Nor bend the knee. Clarence Stedman

Union

ASSEMBLY: Thou, too, sail on, O Ship of State!

Sail on, O Union, strong and great!

Humanity with all its fears,

With all the hopes of future years,

Is hanging breathless on thy fate. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

ASSEMBLY: Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable.

Daniel Webster

Equality

LEADER: We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal; That they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; That among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

Thomas Jefferson

Humanity

ASSEMBLY: With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan — to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves, and with all nations.

Abraham Lincoln

Service

LEADER: God hath made of one blood all nations of men, and we are his children,— brothers and sisters all.

We are citizens of these United States, and we believe our Flag stands for self-sacrifice for the good of all the people. We want, therefore, to be true citizens of our great country, and will show our love for her by our works.

Our country does not ask us to die for her welfare; she asks us to live for her, and so to live and so to act that her government may be pure, her officers honest, and every corner of her territory shall be a place fit to grow the best men and women, who shall rule over her. Mary McDowell

Education and Americanization

ASSEMBLY: The Flag means universal education — light for every mind, knowledge for every child. We must have but one flag. We must also have but one language.

This must be the language of the Declaration of Independence.

Hymn Our Father's God, to Thee (America, No. 223)

Righteousness

ASSEMBLY: I have lived a long time; and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth, that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice, is it possible that an empire can rise without his aid?

We have been assured in the sacred writings that except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it. I firmly believe this; and I also believe that without his concurring aid we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel. Benjamin Franklin

World Brotherhood

LEADER: But the right is more precious than peace, and we shall fight for the things which we have always carried nearest our hearts — for democracy, for the right of those who submit to authority to have a voice in their own governments, for the rights and liberties of small nations, for a universal dominion of right by such a concert of free peoples as shall bring peace and safety to all nations and make the world itself at last free. Woodrow Wilson

America, the Shouts of War Shall Cease

The House of Brotherhood
(ALL SAINTS. C. M. D.)

ALLEN EASTMAN CROSS, 1918

HENRY S. CUTLER, 1872

1. A - mer - i - ca, A - mer - i - ca, The shouts of war shall cease;
2. What though its stones were laid in tears, Its pil - lars red with wrong,
3. A - mer - i - ca, A - mer - i - ca, Ring out the glad re - frain!

The glo - ry dawns! the day is come Of vic - to - ry and peace!
Its walls shall rise through pa - tient years To soar - ing spires of song!
Sa - lute the flag — sa - lute the dead That have not died in vain!

And now up - on a lar - ger plan We'll build the com - mon good,
For on this house shall faith at - tend With Joy on air - y wing,
O glo - ry! glo - ry to thy plan To build the com - mon good,

The tem - ple of the love of man, The House of Broth - er - hood!
And flam - ing loy - al - ty as - cend To God the on - ly King!
The tem - ple of the rights of man, The House of Broth - er - hood! A-MEN.

Apostrophe to the Flag (All uniting)

All hail to our glorious ensign!

Courage to the heart, and strength to the hand, to which, in all time, it shall be entrusted. On whatsoever spot it is planted, there may freedom have a foothold, humanity a brave champion, and religion an altar. Edward Everett

In the name of God we lift up our banner, and dedicate it to peace, union, and liberty now and forevermore. Henry Ward Beecher

I am what you make me, nothing more.

I swing before your eyes as a bright gleam of color.

A symbol of yourself.

A pictured suggestion of that big thing which makes this nation.

My stars and my stripes are your dream and your labors.

They are bright with cheer, brilliant with courage, firm with faith, because you have made them so out of your hearts.

WE ARE ALL MAKING THE FLAG. Franklin K. Lane

Salute to the Flag (All uniting)

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States,

And to the republic for which it stands;

One nation, indivisible,

With liberty and justice for all.

National Anthem (All uniting)

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light

What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?

Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight

O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?

And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air

Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.

O say, does the Star-Spangled Banner still wave

O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

(All seated)

Prayer (Leader)

O God of purity and peace, God of light and freedom, God of comfort and joy, we thank thee for our country, this great land of hope, whose wide doors thou hast opened to so many millions that struggle with hardship and with hunger in the crowded Old World.

We give thanks to the power that has made and preserved us a nation, that has carried our ship of state through storm and darkness and has given us a place of honor and power that we might bear aloft the standard of impartial liberty and impartial law.

May our altars and our schools ever stand as pillars of welfare; may the broad land be filled with homes of intelligent and contented industry, that through the long generations our land may be a happy land and our country a power of good will among the nations. Amen. Charles Gordon Ames

LEADER: The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved:
He uttered his voice, the earth melted.

ASSEMBLY: The Lord of Hosts is with us,
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

LEADER: They that trust in the Lord
Are as mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abideth forever.

He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder;
He burneth the chariots in the fire.

LEADER: Be still, and know that I am God:
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth.

LEADER: Of the increase of his government there shall be no end, to order it and to establish it with judgment and with justice forever.

ASSEMBLY: Nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

LEADER: I will make thy officers peace and thy rulers righteousness. Violence and destruction shall no more be heard in the land. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

ASSEMBLY: For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

LEADER: Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will make a new covenant with you. I will put my law within you and write it in your hearts. My people shall all be righteous; they shall inherit the earth forever. I, the Lord, will bring it to pass in mine own time.

ASSEMBLY: Hallelujah, for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth!

Hymn (Tune 'America,' No. 246)

God, grant us now thy peace,
Bid all dissensions cease,
God, send us peace.
Peace in true liberty,
Peace in equality,
Peace and fraternity,
God, send us peace.

LEADER: Peace should be made with all mankind. It should be our care not only to make peace, but to maintain it. But this will never be until we are persuaded that quiet is better than disturbance, justice than injustice, the care of our own than grasping at what belongs to others.

(Oration on Peace—Isocrates
400 B. C.)

ASSEMBLY: We punish murderers and massacres among private persons. What do we respecting wars, and the glorious crime of murdering whole nations? The love of conquest is a murderess. Conquerors are scourges not less harmful to humanity than floods and earthquakes. (Seneca, the Roman, born the same year as Christ)

Let us, then, as a nation, be just — observe good faith towards all nations, cultivate peace and harmony with all, and give to mankind the example of a people always guided by an exalted justice and benevolence. George Washington

'Up to the sombre sky
 Rolled one great thankful sigh,
 Rolled one great gladsome cry —
 The soul's deliverance of a mighty people —
 Thank God for peace.
 The long low-hanging war-cloud rolled away,
 The night glowed brighter than the brightest day.'

LEADER: Awake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion:

ASSEMBLY: Put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the Holy City.

LEADER: Shake thyself from the dust; arise, sit on thy throne, O Jerusalem.

ASSEMBLY: Loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

LEADER: O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion,
Get thee up into a high mountain.

ASSEMBLY: O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem,
Lift up thy voice with strength.

LEADER: Lift it up, be not afraid;
Say unto the cities of Judah,
Behold your God.

Hymn

O Zion, haste, thy mission high fulfilling,
To tell to all the world that God is Light,
That he who made all nations is not willing
One soul should perish, lost in shades of night.
Publish glad tidings, tidings of peace,
Tidings of Jesus, redemption and release.

LEADER: Then shall the King say:
For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat;
I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink:
I was a stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me:
I was sick, and ye visited me:
I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

ASSEMBLY: Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it to one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Hymn

Behold how many thousands still are lying
Bound in the darksome prison-house of sin,
With none to tell them of the Saviour's dying,
Or of the life he died for them to win!
Publish glad tidings, tidings of peace,
Tidings of Jesus, redemption and release.

ASSEMBLY: Through tribulations and distress, they come!
Through perils great and bitterness,
Through persecutions pitiless, they come!
They come by paths the martyrs trod,
They come from underneath the rod,
Climbing through the darkness up to God, they come!
Out of mighty tribulation,
With a sound of jubilation,
They come! they come!

John Oxenham

LEADER: Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, Baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and of the Holy Spirit:
 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you:

ASSEMBLY: And lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

hymn

Give of thy sons to bear the message glorious,
 Give of thy wealth to speed them on their way,
 Pour out thy soul for them in prayer victorious;
 And all thou spendest Jesus will repay.
 Publish glad tidings, tidings of peace,
 Tidings of Jesus, redemption and release.

ASSEMBLY: The spirit of the Lord is upon me,
 Because he anointed me to preach good tidings to the poor:
 He hath sent me to proclaim release to the captives,
 And recovering of sight to the blind;
 To set at liberty them that are bruised,
 To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

LEADER: He will not fail nor be discouraged till he shall have set justice in the earth; and the isles shall wait for his law.
 When the Son of man shall come in his glory,
 And all the holy angels with him,
 Then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory,
 And before him shall be gathered all nations.

hymn

He comes again: O Zion, ere thou meet him,
 Make known to every heart his saving grace;
 Let none whom he hath ransomed fail to greet him,
 Through thy neglect, unfit to see his face.
 Publish glad tidings, tidings of peace,
 Tidings of Jesus, redemption and release. Amen.

ALL: BLESSED BE THE LORD GOD, THE GOD OF ISRAEL,
 WHO ONLY DOETH WONDROUS THINGS:
 AND BLESSED BE HIS GLORIOUS NAME FOR EVER;
 AND LET THE WHOLE EARTH BE FILLED WITH HIS GLORY.
